Live-streaming

Please be aware that the 10am service every Sunday is live-streamed to our Facebook page. Coming to the altar to receive communion implies consent to be seen on camera. If you are unhappy to do so, do have a chat with one of the clergy or wardens and we can make arrangements to bring it to you in your pew.

Giving to Church

We pass collection plates around the pews during the offertory hymn. If you prefer not to use cash, you can use this QR code to donate to the running of the church. You can also give online by clicking on the "donate button" on the home page of our website. Or you can use the QR code on the end of each pew in church.

Thank you so much for your continued support in the running and upkeep of your church.

Summer Fair Bottle Stall

Once again Ian and Sue Horseman are asking for donations to their ever popular bottle stall at this year's Summer Fair. This can be alcoholic or soft drinks, marinades or sauces, shower gels or other toiletries. Please ensure your donation is in date, and something you would like to win for yourself or gift to a friend. We don't want that dusty bottle of vinegar from the back of the cupboard! Please leave your donations at the back of church.

Of your charity please pray for:

- Those acutely unwell: June Watkins, Bruce Stedman, Mary Haslum, Shala Spiller, Chris Leslie
- Those with chronic or long-term conditions: Katie Roberts-Malpass, Alice Morris, Mark Olive, Ruth and Eddy Welch, Michael Keeble
- Those in need:
- Our local community: Bristol Samaritans
- Our Church and the wider diocese of Bristol: Our clergy and lay ministers
- The departed:
- Those whose anniversary falls this week: Kathleen Riddle, Everett Bogle, Arthur Gumbrell, Mo Hobbs

For a monthly diocesan prayer cycle, please see link

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament you have given us the memorial of your passion: grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives the fruits of your redemption; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Sisters of the Church

At times like Easter, Harvest and Christmas, the work of the Sisters is at the forefront of our minds, and you are incredibly generous with your donations. However, the Sisters' work continues year round, helping the most vulnerable and those most in need in our city, with 250 regular visitors every week. Please consider bringing more donations to church so that we can support this worthy cause year round. Non-perishable food items and toiletries like soap and sanitary products are always welcomed. Sue and Ian are happy to take donations down if you leave items in the box at the back of church. Thank you.

St Peter's Summer Fair - 27 June 2026 (St Petertide)

Our Summer fair will be held from 10am to 2pm on Saturday 27th June.

Weather permitting it will be held in church car park like last year. But don't worry if it's raining; it will still go ahead! We would welcome everyone's involvement if you are available to bring in donations / help with stalls and support on the day by attending and helping set up the event. We are hoping to arrange some entertainment to happen during the day- watch this space!

We are looking for donations of the following:

- Bottles (filled) for bottle stall- see above
- Home-made items/ crafts for sale alongside home made jams etc.
- Cakes / other baked products for sale on MU stall
- Home grown plants / surplus pot plants / surplus garden produce
- Raffle prizes (quality goods/ unwanted presents etc)
- Bric a brac (good quality)
- Books
- Puzzles
- Teddies/ soft toys for naming or teddy tombola
- If anyone has links to local suppliers, could you ask them to donate raffle prizes? Amy has drafted a letter/ email that can be forwarded to be sent out

If you can help with any of these items please speak to our PCC entertainment and fundraising group: Jenny Connor, Amy Atkinson, or Sue & Ian Horseman, or alternatively Claire Eade or the church wardens: Linda Keeble & Janet Moller. Or sign up on the sheet at the back of church.
Thanks

Mothers' Union

Our next meeting will be this Thursday 11th June at 2pm in the Coffee Shop. Please join us to find out more about the 150th celebrations. As always, refreshments and fellowship are in abundance. See you there, Linda Rawlings.

An important announcement from the PCC

Hello Everyone,

The PCC met on Wednesday 6th May and this is to give you a bit of an update.

We are continuing with the Parish Profile, also known as Christ's Call to attract the right parish priest for St Peter's and we will be letting you have more information as time moves along.

You all, both the immediate congregation and the wider community, are very much wanted to be part of this process. The PCC is currently carrying out a few scoping ideas on how to do this in practice so watch this space.

Sunday June 14th is the day we are hoping to have Rosy Ashley with us to help us along the journey, so please put the date in your diaries as we want as many of you as possible to participate.

That's it for now, many blessings

St Peter's PCC

Introits

The introits we use change with the liturgical seasons and reflect the nature of worship for which we prepare ourselves in the 5 minutes before the service. This is a time of reflective prayer. Please continue to join in with the introits if you wish.

We mainly use Taize chants, which are a form of spiritual reflection. This does not work so well if people cannot be still and calm their minds.

Please be mindful of this when you enter the church and keep the peaceful 5 minutes, if not for yourself then in respect of others who are doing so.

I have had great feedback about moving the choir amongst the congregation, so we will keep doing this in various ways when we can. Singing sends prayers twofold (Attributed to St Augustine), elevating the words into a deeper, more emotional form of worship.

Let's keep up the prayer and praise! Viv

Time to Grieve

We meet on the first Wednesday of the month, 10.30am, in the Coffee Shop. If you are grieving the loss of a loved one, come along to our friendly group where you will find support from Margaret, our retired grief counsellor. Our next meeting will be Wednesday, 1st July.

A plea from the Coffee Shop manager

Our ever popular coffee shop is run entirely by volunteers and everyone works hard to keep this important community resource open. However, we are desperately short of people to make cakes for us - and the homemade cakes are the biggest draw! If you feel you can help out, even just once in a while, please speak to Mandy or pop into the coffee shop. As long as you provide a list of ingredients, we are grateful for any cake!

Thursday services

We have a wonderful, friendly group of worshippers on a Thursday morning for our 11am service. Everyone looks after one another and helps out where they can. Our worship is enhanced by different visiting priests who all bring their own style to the service. Sometimes we don't have a priest, but offer a contemplative service of Morning Prayer instead. Everyone is welcome to join us at 11am in the Lady Chapel for what is often a slightly more informal, said service. Faith.

Vacancy

St Peter's is now in vacancy while the PCC work with the Diocese of Bristol to find a new priest. In the meantime we have the support of Fr Allan and various different visiting priests. We hope to keep disruption to services to a minimum through this time, though you may see that weekday services are disrupted. Your understanding is appreciated while we do our best to keep interruptions to a minimum. Keep an eye on Facebook for the latest updates.
